和光市男女共同参画推進条例 はじまる 一歩 から

An important step towards to the realization of a gender equal society

The realization of a gender-equal society, in which both women and men shall be given equal opportunities to participate voluntarily in activities in all fields as equal partners, and be able to enjoy political, economic, social and cultural benefits equally as well as to share responsibilities, is a top priority task in determining one of Japan's 21st century frame work.

Wako city has been working on various activities to realize a gender-equal society, however there still remain rigid, stereotyped gender roles.

In April 2005, the Wako Promotion of Gender-equality ordinance went effect to clarify basic concepts pertaining to formation of a gender-equal society.

This is an important step towards to the realization of a gender-equal society.
